St. Peter's Chorus wishes to thank the following groups and individuals: Lucille Reynaud and the St. Theresa church community for hosting our Wakaw concert; St. Augustine parish for their assistance with Sunday's concert; Manny Lefebvre and Bob Henderson for their technical expertise, and John de Gooijer for recording our Humboldt concert; St. Peter's Abbey and St. Peter's College for their continued support; and to you, our audiences- thank you for your support and attendance over the past 43 years. Merry Christmas!

St. Peter's Concert Society is a non-profit charitable organization supporting the musical community through its member groups; St. Peter's Chorus, St. Peter's Orchestra, St. Peter's Concert Society and the St. Peter's Chorus also sponsor scholarships at the Humboldt Music Festival and the Saskatchewan Choral Federation children's and teen choir camps, held annually at St. Peter's college. Donations to the concert society are always welcome, and are tax-receipted.
